

Tales from the Temple

Saturday, June 28, 2008 – 9:00 AM

Sin Thé Karate School

Lexington, Kentucky

Open to all Shaolin-Do Students and Prospective Students

For his annual summer seminar, Elder Master Leonard has decided not to teach a kata but instead to hold a “Tales from the Temple”. This is an informal question and answer session in which you, the students, ask the questions and he will answer them. Now is your chance to ask Elder Master Leonard all of those questions you’ve always wanted to ask, but never had the chance! Learn about the history of Shaolin-Do, the Sin Thé Karate School, Grandmaster Sin Thé himself, and anything else you can think of. Elder Master Leonard is the senior student of Grandmaster Sin Thé and has over 40 years of experience, knowledge, and stories in Shaolin-Do, its history, and the people involved with it.

COST: $30.00

Please contact Dale Leonard at the front desk to sign up in advance, or pay at the door! For more information, call the Sin Thé Karate School at 859-275-2148.
